

From time to time, the BMW Club of Northern California may send text messages to your cell phone for important and timely communications regarding your registration for certain events. By clicking the Text Message approval checkbox you acknowledge you are the owner of the cell number provided on your registration, that message and data charged may apply to your account if text messages are sent and you approve of the BMW Club of Northern California sending you text messages at the number provided.